The University of Valladolid is one of the most important centers of Higher Education in Spain. It is involved in numerous international relations networks and research centers. It is also one of the oldest public universities in Europe and in the World, having been founded in 1241, and a prestigious institution renowned for its quality in the fields of humanities, social sciences, health, technology and engineering.

The programs of Spanish for foreign students are held at the University Language Centre. The Center is an ideal setting for international students; it provides them with common leisure facilities such as gardens, restaurants and bars, in addition to the latest means for language learning. International students are in close contact with Spanish students; one of our main priorities is to foster language interaction.

The Language Center is equipped with the latest technology in language learning: digital white boards, audiovisual equipment, and multimedia rooms. The Center also has a meeting room and a library with free-access computers and free Wi-Fi. Students enrolled are issued with a student card which provides them with access to the sports facilities as well as other activities organized by the University of Valladolid.

The Center is recognized by the Cervantes Institute as an "Accredited Center" for the teaching of Spanish as a foreign language. It is also an Examination Center for the DELE, SIELE and CCSE exams.

Spanish is taught in small groups, and students are given personal high-quality, professional attention. All the teachers hold a degree in higher education and are specialized in subjects related to Spanish language and culture.

The Spanish courses for foreigners at the University of Valladolid have been taught continuously for more than 65 years. Nowadays, Spanish lessons take place at the University Language Center, located on the Miguel Delibes campus, in a safe and easily accessible area providing an ideal setting for learning and practicing Spanish.

Each month an average of some 100 students study Spanish at the Language Centre. They are split into various groups adapted to each student's specific level.

Our students come from such wide-ranging places as the United States, Italy, Germany, South Korea, Japan, China and Taiwan, to name but a few.

The purpose of our programs is to give students the opportunity for an immersion experience in a genuine Spanish speaking environment. The courses are carefully organized to provide the students with an optimum atmosphere to learn Spanish. It is simultaneously a fully accredited and challenging academic experience that allows students to focus their studies towards their degree or certificate.

Our courses are organized around the different reference levels established for Spanish by the Planned Curriculum of the Cervantes Institute following the scheme established by the European Framework of Reference for Languages (A1-A2, B1-B2 and C1-C2).

We offer a range of courses throughout the year which are varied, flexible, and which adapt to your needs:
